

Image: Predrag Milošević, detail of Conversation Playground, 2009, oil painting on canvas.

AMUSEUM

Maida Gruden

Curator, Students' City Cultural Center
Belgrade, Serbia

As a visual arts programmer at the Students' City Cultural Center (SCCC) in Belgrade and a member of the curatorial duo maramaida, Gruden is active in both the academic and alternative scenes. She is interested in involving the student community in art projects that can serve as a powerful tool for understanding society. At the SCCC, she is currently working on a residency program for international photographers to create projects with students, and she has also developed collective works involving artists, students and citizens.

To learn more about Gruden's work, please visit maidagruden.wordpress.com

The ASU Art Museum International Artist Residency Program brings accomplished national and international artists, curators and scholars to ASU to develop new work with the research resources of Arizona State University and the diverse communities in Arizona. Funded in part through the support of ArtsLink Residencies which offers artists and arts managers from 37 overseas countries five-week residencies at non-profit arts organizations throughout the U.S. The program enables artists and communities across the U.S. to share artistic practices with artists and arts managers from abroad and engage in dialogue that advances understanding across cultures. cecartslink.org

Public Lecture

Tuesday, Oct. 28, 2014, 6:30 to 7:30 p.m.

ASU Art Museum
10th St. and Mill Ave., Tempe, Ariz. 85287

Exhibition

Nov. 7 to Dec. 22, 2014

ASU Art Museum International Artist Residency Gallery at Combine Studios

821 N. 3rd St., Phoenix, Ariz. 85004

First Friday Opening Reception, Nov. 7, 6 to 9 p.m.

Gruden is developing an exhibition that will feature photographers from Serbia and Arizona.

Admission to all exhibitions and programs is free.

For hours, directions and more information, call
480.965.ARTS(2787) or visit ASUArtMuseum.asu.edu.

The ASU Art Museum is part of the Herberger Institute for Design and the Arts at Arizona State University.

